

I think it would be outrageous to overturn the New Jersey DO NO CALL list. Our right to personal privacy is far more important than the relatively new industry of tele-marketing. Let them use their imaginations and create some other form of making money. Keep them out of our homes!